Exploring aspects of the human impact on landscape & environment

The Sarn Oak Trail

An aerial photograph of a rural landscape. A red dashed line traces a path that starts in the upper left, curves around a small cluster of buildings, and then runs horizontally across the middle of the image. The landscape consists of large, open fields, some with trees, and a cluster of buildings on the right side. The text "The Sarn Oak Trail" is overlaid in green at the top left, and "Nature and The Human Impact" is overlaid in green and yellow at the bottom.

Nature and

The Human Impact

Exploring the route

A photograph of a person walking through a grassy field towards a large, dark tree. In the background, there are rolling hills and a dramatic sunset sky with orange and red clouds. The text is overlaid in green.

“Its only human
To take more than you give...

...it ain't about right or wrong...

...we're all just walking each other home”
